Casilla Ura.

The most gifted woman that ever drew a bow will appear here on Friday evening of this week. No violinist of greater rank has ever before appeared in this city. It will be the musical event of the year.

—Don't forget the music box drawing. A few more chances for a dollar. Now is the time to get a beautiful music box, that plays sacred airs, for one dollar. Tickets for sale at Thaxter's drug store, opposite the Capitol building. Can be had in the Assembly chamber during the noon recess.

THE CHINESE LOTTERY

Patronized by the Best Society in Carson.

The Chinese are getting in their work in fine style in the lottery business in this city. They have two drawings a day. The racket is run by tickets all covered with squares and a chinaman makes the rounds every day to peddle tickets. You pay ten cents for a ticket, and then you dot the square with a brush of ink and make seven marks. When the tickets are all in, they are compared in Chinatown with another ticket which has been marked. If your marks should correspond with two of the other marks you get a dollar, if with three $2 and so on.
If the spots are all like the one on the king card you win $15.

This is a very fascinating game, and the ladies all think it lovely.
The joke of it is, that they never see the king card at all, but the celestial who sells the tickets is trusted with the money and brings back the prizes won. He buys the tickets at wholesale and if a ticket wins say $20 he gives the lady a dollar and forty cents and keep the balance.

"Belly good guess tly gain you catchum big money."

The APPEAL has a list of the ladies who patronize this lottery and it would cause many a smile in print. Some of the ladies who buck at the Chinese swindle think that a State lottery would be "perfectly awful" but they stick by the Chinese lottery through thick and thin.

The Kirmess

The fancy table at the Kirmess will be in the hands of the Quakeresses; no exorbitant prices will be charged, and exact change will be made. The grand march will take place at 8 o'clock on the evening of Feb. 5th, followed by a Chorus, the Minuet, Tableau, Recitation, Tableau, Chorus and Tableau.
Admission 50cts. Children half price. On Wednesday from 12 o'clock to half past two the ladies will serve a most delicious luncheon at the Opera House. Wednesday evening an entire change of programme. Dancing each evening.

made special order for Friday at 2 o'clock P. M.
At 12:30 recess taken till 1:45
P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Governor returned two bills with his veto.

One relative to proceedings in criminal cases by reason of defective title, and the other a bill consolidating county officers by reason of its unconstitutionality. The bill to prevent females serving as attaches of the Legislature was lost by one vote.

THE RENO LOTTERY.

The Riverside Town and its Carson Agency.

Yesterday the Editor of the APPEAL made another investment in a lottery ticket. He purchased the ticket of Homer Thaxter, son of Assemblyman Thaxter. Thaxter has more consideration for the press than Thaxter pere; instead of using a rubber stamp, he needles printed tickets.

The APPEAL likes to see this and therefore gives his lottery a lift gratis. The tickets vended by Homer Thaxter are as follows:

* GRAND BICYCLE RAFFLE.

No. 42.
FULL NICKEL CHAMPION,
IN FINE CONDITION,
To be held at Reno, Feb., '89.
Tickets, - - - - - $1.00
F. A. Barnes. C. F. Jaques.

Homer is the agent in this city for the Bicycle lottery of Reno, and every time he sells a ticket lays himself open to a $500 dollar fine and six months in the county jail just as the APPEAL Editor does when he prints the advertisement of the raffie.

[See law against Raffles and Lotteries under head of "Crimes and their Punishments." Compiled laws of Nevada, Bailey and Hammond.]

If the law were enforced Assemblyman Thaxter and the Editor of the APPEAL along with Dr. Davison and the ladies of several Churches would all be in the county jail.

We could name one hundred people in this city, some of them moving in the best society, who have raffled quilts, fancy needle work, sewing machines, sofa cushions and rugs, and put the money right into their pockets. The reason they like to raffie these articles is that they bring about three times as much at raffie as at cash sale.

As for the Reno lottery we advise our people to stand in and purchase the tickets. Help the Riverside town. Although Reno is just now in a spasm of indignation, led by Bob Lindsey and other noted reformers, it is still printing lottery tickets to send up here to rake in a little Carson coin.

Soldiers' Re-Union.

Rawlin's Post, No. 23, G. A. R. of Stockton Cal., have issued a circular inviting all, whether members of Posts or not, to attend a Re-union of all the Old Soldiers and Sailors of the Grand Army on the Pacific Coast, to take place at Stockton California during the Encampment at that place on Feb.
13th, 14th, and 15th. Any further information can be obtained from Levi B. Holt, Chairman of the Committee of arrangements at Stockton Cal.

Jewelry Display.

There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Rinckel building. The designs are of the latest, and will be sold during holidays, at prices which can not be duplicated in the State.

The assortment embraces all kinds of the most fashionable jewelry and tableware. Call and inspect goods and prices.

*dism CHATELAIN & GOLDEN.

—Reno is fighting the lottery tooth and toe nail, on the ground that if the lottery goes Carson will have a big Opera House, employ a hundred clerks and have a big influx of people here every month dwarfing Reno as a city. This, when boiled down is the sum total of Washoe's opposition to the lottery scheme. Locate the principle place of business in Reno and the virtuous spasm would melt like the snow under a solid majority for amendment No. 22.
